

CONTENTS OF VOL. I.

---

	PAGE
Will it be suffered to Work ?.....	1
Portraits of the Senate.....	6. 132
La Huitaine, with Translation .....	7
The "Swinish Multitude".....	ib.
The Masque of Anarchy .....	8
Quarterly Review—"Journal of a Naturalist" .....	13
Population and Employment .....	28
Patriotism ; or, Our Love for and Duty to our Country .....	30. 147. 279. 550
Lectures on Music, with Concerted Illustrations .....	35. 266
The Leading Newspaper Press .....	38
The Flight of Israel .....	43
State of the Country with regard to the Debt and the Taxes.....	46
Banim's Novels .....	50
The Dutch War .....	57
Scenes in the Sister Island .....	60. 136. 312
The Irish Monthly Magazine .....	72
Going to Sea .....	75
Ireland .....	80. 169. 401
Mr. O'Connell's Letter. ....	87
Sonnet .....	91
Annual Parliaments, &c. ....	92. 244
What Properties a Parliament Man should have .....	92
Fine Arts .....	93. 206. 327. 408. 507
The National Gallery.....	93
Reminiscences of a Tailor.....	102
Apology of a Parisian Girl .....	108
Divarication of the New Testament into Doctrine and History.....	109
Sonnet to Music.....	116
The Marseillaise Hymn .....	117
Political Ethics—Mustard or Honey .....	119
Change in the Times .....	121
Taxes on Knowledge .....	124
Literary Puffing .....	127
Parliamentary Privileges—Freedom from Arrest .....	131
Songs .....	134, 135
Seneca's Ideas of Book-Learning .....	151
The Bank Charter .....	152
Monuments.....	160
Literary Intelligence .....	179. 383. 494. 588
Events of the Month .....	179. 284. 484. 575
Important from Charleston .....	185
The Markets .....	191. 293. 400. 496. 591
The Wedding Day and the Wedding Night .....	195
"London and its Vicinity" .....	206
Britannia to the Editors... ..	211
"Illustrations of Political Economy" .....	213
The Etruscans.....	219
Tax on Newspapers .....	225
Sonnet.....	233

	PAGE
The Established Church.....	234
"Three Years in America," and "Domestic Manners of the Americans" ....	255
Serenade .....	265
Fragment .....	269
The Poacher .....	270
Itinerating Libraries .....	272
French Pronunciation .....	276
The Poles .....	279
Portraits of the Bar .....	282
Cheap Law .....	283
Poor Law Returns .....	292
The Drama and Dramatic Literature .....	295. 497
Law of Arrest for Debt .....	322
Paulina's Letters to her Kinsfolk.....	326
Major's Cabinet Gallery .....	327. 408
The Forfeit Pledge.....	342
The Ballot in America .....	352
Lines by a Lady.....	353
My Old Regiment.....	354. 468
The Queen of Night .....	361
The British Museum .....	362
Emigration.....	364
Ode to the People of France.....	368
The Jews .....	369
Critical Notices.....	382. 492. 584
The Theatre .....	384. 495. 589
The Suffolk Street Gallery .....	389
Grand Jury Bill .....	401
The Royal Academy Exhibition .....	414. 507
Associated Painters in Water-Colours .....	428
Song .....	438
The Waggoner .....	439
Lord Collingwood .....	443
Corporate Reform .....	456
Lines .....	462
Duelling .....	463
The Whigs and Sir John Hobhouse .....	473
The "National Convention" Meeting.....	481
Marloe.....	497
Fantasia .....	518
Foreign Tyranny and Persecution .....	524
"The Book of Economy".....	532
Invocation to the Fairies .....	538
The College of Physicians .....	540
The Execution .....	544
Morning Dew, and Ladies' Complexions.....	548
Myary's Letter to the Editors .....	554
"Best Possible Chronicles of Consistency" .....	556
Administration and Operation of the Poor Laws .....	559
Natural History .....	574